Numb. 1734

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday June 29. to Monday July 3. 1682.

Genoua, June 24.

FRom Turin we have advice, That an Expreſs was arrived there from Lisbon, with an account of the departure of 12 Men of War for Villa Franca, who are to attend the Duke of Savoy in his Paſſage for Portugal. The Merchant Ships that came from the Levant with the Swallow and the Aſſurance Sailed ſome days ſince for England.

Francfort, June 25. From Hungary they write, That the Turks have three Bodies on that ſide, and that ſome Skirmiſhes have paſſed between them and the Imperial Troops; which in thoſe parts is not lookt upon as a Rupture. And it's ſaid that the 16000 Men that had orders to march out of the Hereditary Countreys towards the Rhine, are now reduced to 5 or 6000; the reſt upon theſe motions of the Turks being diverted another way.

Francfort, June 26. The French Ambaſſadors are expecting Orders concerning the putting their Memorials in Latine, and in the mean time here paſſes not any thing of moment.

Strasburg, June 28. Our new Biſhop has been very ill at Zaberne, but is at preſent ſomewhat better. A great many French Troops lay on the Frontiers of Lorrain, Alſace, and Burgundy, ready to joyn together, in caſe there be occaſion for it; and it is ſaid that a detatchment of them will be ſent towards Italy, from whence the Sieur de Vauban, the famous Ingenier, arrived here two days ſince.

Cologne, June 26. Two days ſince arrived here fourteen Boats, in which were four Italian Regiments, making in all about 800 Men, who came from Luxemburg, by the way of Trier, and yeſterday they parted again for Rhemberg, where they will go aſhoar, and ſo march for Gelderland. The new Fortifications that are making at Juliers are carried on with all imaginable diligence, and when they are finiſhed, that place will be impregnable, and conſequently a good Bulwark for this City. The French Troops that are in the Country of Eyffelt, at Sloiden, and Aremberg conſiſt in about 1400 Men: They are making ſome Fortifications at Aremberg, but do not at preſent work upon them with that application they did formerly.

Cologne, June 30. Our Letters from Vienna of the 19th Inſtant give an Account, That the Emperor intended very ſuddenly to go for Prague, and to paſs ſome time there, that he might be ſo much nearer the Empire. That Count Teckeley, chief of the Hungarian Malecontents, demanded firſt, That the Kingdom of Hungary ſhould be reſtored to the State it was in 1655; and in the next place, That part of the ſaid Kingdom ſhould be given to him, with the Title of Prince, ſaying, He would rather loſe the favour of the Emperor, than of the Ottoman Port, which had promiſed to obtain for him what he demanded of the Emperor: That the Turks had a great Camp near Offen, in which there were not any Tartars, but only Janiſaries, and Spahees; That to obſerve theſe, the Emperor would have two Bodies in the Lower-Hungary, the one Commanded by Prince Hermen of Baden, and the other by Count Caprara; beſides a third Body in the Upper-Hungary, conſiſting of the Troops of that Nation, Commanded by the Palatine: That in the mean time the Hungarian Malecontents had quitted their Quarters, and were marching to the Rendezvous; That the Prince of Tranſilvania did likewiſe aſſemble his Troops; and that thereupon the Governor of Kaab (an Imperial Garriſon) was providing all things neceſſary for the defence of that place, in caſe it ſhould be attacked. From Strasburg they write, That the Sieur Vauban the chief of the French Ingeniers in Alſace, was expected there the 26th of this month: That the Citadel, the Forts at Kiel, and the Redoubts on the Rhine were almoſt finiſhed: That General Monclar Commanded the French Camp at Landaw: That ſix French Battalions were ordered to march to Dole in Burgundy, but that it was not known whether they were from thence to continu their march for Italy, or were to obſerve the Imperial Troops that are in the Foreſt Towns.

Hamburg, July 3. The Letters from Berlin inform us, That the Elector of Brandenburg returned thither the 27th paſt, very well ſatisfied with the Interview he has had with the King of Denmark; and that ſome of his Electoral Highneſſes Troops were marching towards Weſtphalia.

Hague, July 7. The Deputies of this State are parted for Maeſtricht, where they are to meet with thoſe of Liege, in order to the Compoſing the Differences between this State and the Government of Liege. The States of Holland are Adjourned till Tueſday next, and the Prince of Orange has put off his Journey for Dieren till the end of this week.

Marſeilles, June 23. Monſieur du Quesne is arrived at Thoulon, with ſeveral Ships under his Convoy from the Levant; and yeſterday morning parted from hence 15 Galleys under the command of Monſieur de Nevilles, who have orders to Sail directly for Port Mahon, where it's ſaid the Maltha Galleys, commanded by Monſieur Colbert, are already arrived, with 10 or 11 Men of War from West-France, which, with four or five more from Thoulon, will make up the Fleet deſigned againſt Argiers, and which will be commanded by Monſieur du Quesne

Paris, July 8. The Deputies of the Clergy are to meet no more till November next, their Aſſembly, upon the Kings Command, ſignified to the Archbiſhop of Paris, being Adjourned till that time, with this intimation, That the King will let them then know, whether he thinks fit to have them continue their meeting, or to put a final end to it. This change has very much ſurprized People, who cannot well comprehend the occaſion of it; all that appears, is, that an Expreſs arrived here